

THE CLARION.

LOCAL AND OTHER NOTES.

Happy New Year.

But few "calls" and very little "receiving" on New Year's day and night.

Gen. Grant, of Terry, is among the welcome callers of THE CLARION this week.

Mississippi Commandery, Knights Templar, next Monday night.

Spelling Match at Fair Lawn Institute on Friday, commencing at one o'clock. The patrons invited.

THE CLARION's fast friend Dr. J. W. Rybin, was among its welcome callers this week.

Dr. Ragle, Superintendent of the County poor-house at Raymond, was in the city yesterday.

Messrs J. I. Halbert, Birdsong and I. V. Enoch, of Terry, favored us with visits Monday.

THE CLARION extends greetings and wishes to its many subscribers for a prosperous new year.

Col. C. E. Hooker was in the city yesterday. He will return to Washington in a few days.

We note an improvement being made in some of our city pavements and streets. The good work go on.

The Telegraph Office is in its new and more convenient quarters in the Kells building, Capitol Street.

We had the pleasure yesterday of a visit from Mr. George R. Fearn, Jr., formerly of this city, and now member of the Dallas, Texas, bar.

Thos. E. Helm, Esq., has sold his residence on West street to Judge J. A. P. Campbell. The price paid was $5,500. Immediate possession was given.

The officers elect of Capital Lodge No. 11, I. O. O. F., will be installed to-morrow (Thursday) night. The Grand Master will officiate.

It would be a graceful courtesy in the several congregations of this city to place the telephone in their pastors' residences. Mr. Andrews' congregation has led off in the matter.

The Sacrament of the Lords' Supper will be observed at the Presbyterian Church next Sabbath morning. Preparatory services Friday night.

An up-to-date Express office has become a positive necessity. It would be a great public convenience, and but little, if any, additional expense to the Company.

Renewals and new subscriptions are meeting THE CLARION in evidence that its efforts to keep abreast of the times are substantially appreciated.

After an absence of three months among her relatives and many friends in Jefferson county, Miss Mamie Cadwallader arrived home a few days since.

The Board of Supervisors, Messrs. McRae (President), Newman, Chichester, Middleton and Smith, held their meeting for the 1st Judicial District in this city this week.

We call attention to the card of Mr. H. B. Mayes, Jr., Attorney-at-Law, Jackson and Hazlehurst. Mr. Mayes is a worthy young man, and will give prompt and faithful attention to any business intrusted to him.

Died, at the European House in this city, on Wednesday last, the 30th December, of pneumonia, Mr. T. J. Stone, aged about 55 years. Deceased had been a resident of Jackson for about 17 years, and leaves a family and many friends to mourn his loss.

The New Year's reception at the Executive Mansion was unusually brilliant. Mrs. Batte was assisted in receiving her numerous callers by Miss Johnnie Hunt of Vicksburg, and Miss Mattie Myles of Port Gibson.

The Board of Supervisors have re-elected Dr. George K. Harrington county physician by a unanimous vote, which we may add, was a well merited recognition of his past faithful service in that office.

Mrs. R. H. Meter, of Jefferson county, and her daughter Miss Ella, have been spending the Christmas season at the residence of their relative, Mrs. Power. Miss Ella will remain, as a pupil of Fair Lawn Institute.

Judge Campbell has sold the Gwin place, and within the next twelve months a theological seminary will be in full operation there. The institution at Natchez is for sale, with a view of transfer to this place.

Pearl Grove Baptist Church and Sunday School had an enjoyable concert and Christmas tree at Benevolent Hall last Friday night. The church and school has been organized less than a year, and both appear to have the elements of growth and prosperity.

Hon. J. M. Smylie, Swamp Land Commissioner, will leave for Washington next week, in the land interest of this State. He will be absent several months. Mississippi has a large unsettled claim against the government, which Mr. Smylie will no doubt be able to get in shape for early payment.

The docket for the Northern District was taken up by the Supreme Court on Monday. The attendance from the bar of that District is numerous—among the number present we learn, are Messrs. Reynolds, Davis, McFarland and E. A. Sykes, of Aberdeen, Buchanan and McIntosh, of Okolona, Cayce, of Fulton, Whitfield, of Corinth, and Fitzgerald and Whitfield, of Grenada.

A Serious Smash.

As a switch engine was moving flat cars on the New Orleans railroad late Monday afternoon, a mule team from the country got on the track about mid-way between passenger depot and Express office. The rear flat struck the wagon, smashing it badly and killing one of the mules. The car was, at the same time, driven through the west side of the Express office, smashing things generally, and crushing in the floor. Mr. John Longan, messenger, and Joe Nelson, and John, Willis, porter and driver, were in the room at the time labeling cans of carp for shipment to Vicksburg. The two first named were caught by the intruding car, and it was feared for a while that both were killed. They were extricated with some difficulty, and both were found to be seriously though not dangerously injured. Willis escaped with a slight scratch. So far as we could learn, the engineer was not in fault. The driver of the team had been admonished by several persons not to venture on the track just at that time, but he persisted in doing so. This is the third accident young Longan has had in his brief railroad experience. He has become very popular as Express messenger, and his friends congratulate him on his very narrow escape.

Circuit Court.

The Circuit Court for the first district of Hinds county commenced its term at City Hall on Monday morning—Judge Thos. J. Wharton presiding. The following compose the GRAND JURY—Isidore Strauss, Foreman, W. H. Harris, Henry Matias, Geo. Glover, Morris Garland, W. B. Sorsby, F. M. Hardy, Robert Bradley, Spencer Parker, J. M. King, Watson Hardy, J. T. Milligan, W. D. Gordon, W. G. Baines, Ed. Fendren, W. E. Jones, J. L. McMahon, P. G. Hildebrand, W. T. Holland, I. M. Williams. H. F. Clingan, Bailiff for Grand Jury.

PETIT JURY No. 1—FIRST WEEK—Robt. Armstrong, Jno. L. McMahon, J. H. Deal, P. C. Smith, A. A. Folkes, Lewis Burnett, A. L. Brunson, L. H. Milligan, W. H. Terrett, J. B. Smith, A. Mizell, Wm. Evans.

PETIT JURY No. 2—SECOND WEEK—R. B. Batte, H. Kaler, Jesse Kelly, Aaron McAuliffe, Joe Patton, H. L. Muller, H. G. Massey, C. A. Luck, Jno. Cain, A. B. McGowan, W. D. Terry, R. O. Edwards.

The officers of the court consist of S. B. Thomas, Sheriff; A. G. Lewis, Deputy Sheriff; S. Livingston, Clerk; A. R. Green, Deputy Clerk. The Court Bailiffs are: W. H. Taylor, J. M. Fuller, W. H. Dixon, O. F. Pittman, C. P. Echols, H. L. McGowan, Lewis Gordon, J. W. McRaven, C. T. Brown, Ed. McCoy.

The case of Marquez & Varney vs. Richardson & Bro., was under consideration as we were going to press.

Personal Mention.

We notice in attendance on Supreme Court, Hon. R. O. Reynolds and E. O. Sykes, Gen. Reuben Davis, Maj. Baxter McFarland and Messrs. Q. O. Eckford and E. H. Bristow of Aberdeen Bar; Chancellor F. A. Critz, of West Point; Judge J. W. Buchanan, Col. J. R. McIntosh, Col. A. Y. Harper and Mr. T. H. Houston of Okolona; Judge R. S. Stith, Gen. T. W. Harris and Mr. James H. Watson of Holly Springs; Judge B. F. Worsham of Ripley; Mr. Newman Cayce of Fulton; Hon. J. C. Kyle of Sardis; Col. W. H. Fitzgerald, and Mr. J. J. Slack of Grenada; Col. R. H. Golladay of Coffeeville; Col. T. W. White of Hernando; Mr. G. A. McLean of Winona; Maj. F. E. Whitfield of Corinth; Mr. Eugene Johnson of Senatobia; and Hon. H. C. Watson of Memphis; and Mr. J. W. Rudolph of Nashville, Tenn.

Pearl River Navigation.

The steamer O. R. Singleton, Capt. H. T. Brown, Master, arrived from upper Pearl Saturday evening at 4 o'clock, bringing the largest load of cotton ever brought down the Pearl since the opening of the river—208 bales, besides a lot of hides, poultry, etc. She left at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning, the cargo consisting of 100 sacks salt, 100 bbls. flour, 50 bbls. lime, 3000 brick and other merchandise. The Singleton, on this trip, will go up as high as Edinburgh, Leake county, 140 miles above Jackson, stopping at way landings. The Oliver Clifton, Capt. Chas. Kerr, Master, is now on her upward trip to Carthage and above, and will return in a few days with a load of cotton and other produce. Pearl river navigation is booming.

We are pleased to state that several teachers of note have been personally prospecting in Jackson of late with a view to the establishment of a first-class High School for boys. It is "a long felt want" that we hope will be supplied. There is a positive necessity for such a school, and we are sure the right man will receive a substantial patronage.

THE Supreme Court met January 1, 1883—

—A New Year's Reception to the large docket of the Northern District.

The case of J. W. McLean et al. vs. W. H. Letchford et al., was affirmed.

Bank Hotel.

Under the above name an excellent Hotel is kept in Port Gibson by Mr. and Mrs. Weeks. They keep in the large and elegant old Bank building in Port Gibson, and travellers may rest assured of a good square meal at the Bank Hotel every time.

—Capt. W. T. Ratliff, the efficient Chancery Clerk, was in the city yesterday.

We regret to learn that the gin house of the Messrs. J. N. and W. D. Berryhill of Utica, this county, burned one day last week. It was partly insured.

New Years Greetings From Our Subscribers.

The following kind words are extracted from business letters recently received. They are highly valued, and will incite us to greater efforts to make THE CLARION still more acceptable to its many well-wishers:

PORT GIBSON, MISS.—Enclosed find $2.00 for renewal of THE CLARION, which deserves the cheerful support of all good citizens. W. T. M.

COLDWATER, MISS.—Enclosed find $2.00 for which move up my credit. I am pleased with your manner of treating public questions. P. H. S.

CANTON, MISS.—Enclosed find $2.30 to December 31, 1883. Long may THE CLARION wave to battle for the right. T. L. H.

FAYETTE, MISS.—Find $2.40 in payment of bill rendered. Long life and prosperity to THE CLARION and its proprietors. J. J. W.

COLUMBUS, MISS.—Find money order for $3.15. Want THE CLARION as long as I live. R. W.

ELLISVILLE, MISS.—Continue to send me THE CLARION. When I fail to get it, I am left behind the times. J. A. F.

PARIS, MISS.—Have been reading THE CLARION ever since I became a voter, and while I have never endorsed its hitherto extreme partisanship, yet it contains much that I do approve. J. B. H.

HOHENLINDEN, MISS.—Don't stop THE CLARION—I can't do without it. L. E. T.

GENTOWN, MISS.—I have been taking THE CLARION so long, that I don't know how to do without it. L. J. C.

TRAVIS, MISS.—I regard THE CLARION as the best of eleven papers that come to my house. A. B. N.

GLEN ALLEN, NEAR COLUMBIA, TENN.—Find renewal for 1883. We always have a warm welcome for THE CLARION. It is to us like a letter from home. E. T. A.

Railroad Items.

The first freight receipts issued at the Jackson depot by the new corporation, the Illinois Central Railway, was delivered to THE CLARION office yesterday.

General Superintendent C. M. Sheafe has announced the following appointments for the South Division:

Horace W. Clarke, Acting Superintendent; John Myers, Acting Train Master; A. H. Ellington, Acting Train Master, North Sub, North Division; D. N. Wiggins, Train Master, South Sub, North Division.

Capt. W. P. McKinley, Superintendent of South Division, having been granted leave of absence, has issued the following circular to the officers and employees of that Division:

McCOMB CITY, Jan. 1, 1883.

Through the kindness of Mr. J. C. Clarke, the President of this company, I am allowed a leave of absence to enable me to recover my health. The gentleman who assumes my duties I can vouch for as in every way qualified. I ask from the officers and employees of this Division, for him, the same cordial support and prompt, intelligent performance of duty that has been accorded to me by you all during a nine year's service on this Division.

I trust, with the aid of a kind Providence, to be soon enabled to re-enter the service, and take a place amid scenes and among people I love so well.

Respectfully, W. P. MCKINLEY, Superintendent.

A Card from District Attorney Foote.

To the People of the 9th Judicial District:—

Having served you three years as District Attorney, you know whether you should or should not re-elect me. It is not my purpose to pursue any electioneering methods, nor is such the object of this card. While I might be justified in doing so, if I had not thus been an incumbent of the office, as the case stands, I think I should stand or fall on my record in the office as made. Hence this card is designed to effect two objects, one being to notify all gentlemen who aspire, as they have a right to do, to the office I now hold, of my precise attitude without the necessity of separate correspondence. The other is to express my gratitude to those who heretofore nominated and elected me, and to say that I am deeply sensible of the honor done me, and while the place is not a necessity to me, that I will again serve the people if they are again disposed to honor me, and that if it is thought proper to select some other gentleman, I will be none the less grateful for the confidence accorded me in the past.

I am, your friend and fellow citizen, H. S. FOOTE.

MARRIED.

BROOKE—BURNLEY—At the residence of Mr. J. N. Boyett, Sallis, Miss., Dec. 21st, 1882, by Rev. J. H. Alexander, Mr. C. M. Brooke and Miss Amanda M. Burnley.

A BACHELOR and a spinster who had been schoolmates in youth, and were about the same age, met in after years, and the lady chancing to remark that "men live a great deal faster than women," the bachelor returned: "Yes, Maria; the last time we met we were each twenty-four years old; now I'm over forty, and I hear you haven't reached thirty yet." They never met again.

Jones was riding, and saw a board nailed upon a post in a yard of a farmhouse, with a sign painted on it, "This Farm for Sale." Always ready for a little pleasantry, and seeing a woman in checked sun-bonnet picking up an apron full of chips at the woodpile in front of the house, he stopped and asked her very politely when the farm was to sell? She went on with her work, but replied to his question instantly: "Just as soon as the man comes along who can raise the wind."—New Haven Register.

WHAT WAS HIS CREED?

(Religion relates to life, and the life of religion is to do good.)—Swedenborg.

He charily was like the snow—Soft, white and silent in its fall. Not like the noisy winds that blow From whirling trees the leaves—a pall For flowers and weed Drooping below.

He had great faith in leaves of bread For hungry people, young and old. Hope he inspired; kind words he said, To those he sheltered from the cold. For we should feed, As well as pray.

"What was his creed?" I cannot say. In words he did not put his trust. His faith in words he never writ; He loved to share his cup and crust With all mankind who need it. In time of need

A friend was he. "What was his creed?" He told not me.

He put his trust in heaven, and he Worked well with hand and head, And while he gave us clearly, sweetened his sleep and daily bread. Let us take heed, For life is brief. "What was his creed?" What his belief?

The Sackett Plow and Pulverizer.

Any plow that will thoroughly plow and pulverize the land at one operation is one that should be investigated, and such a one is the SACKETT PLOW AND PULVERIZER, according to the accompanying testimonial, which was exhibited on the Industrial Farm at Tugalo. This plow will also be exhibited in the field in this city, on the 17th of January, at the time of the Planter's Joke Convention:

TUGALO, MISS., Dec. 29, 1882.

SACKETT PLOW AND PULVERIZER COMPANY.

GENTLEMEN: It gives us pleasure to bear testimony to the fact that we have witnessed the successful working of your plow in weedy ground, not cultivated last year; in sedge ground, not cultivated for twenty years; and Bermuda sward, not cultivated for fifteen years, in heavy land, and that it plows and pulverizes in each case. We think it should become a popular tool.

At Plymouth, Pa., while a merry party of skaters were enjoying themselves upon the Susquehanna, a young lady and her escort, skated into a narrow open channel made by a party of ice-cutters. The canal was not observed until too late to prevent a precipitate plunge into the water, which at that point is very deep. The young lady was drowned; her escort was rescued.

At Santa Fe, N. M., the County Commissioners threw out the five precincts at the last election, and thus created a majority and issued certificates of election to the minority candidate. They were arraigned and brought before Chief Justice Axtell, on affidavits of J. H. Alard, charging them with the violation of the Territorial election laws. Governor Sheldon has issued commissions to the Republican county officers, as per mandamus of the Court.

Miss Josephine C. Meeker, daughter of the late N. C. Meeker, who was tortured and killed by Ute Indians in the massacre of 1875, died last week at Washington of pneumonia. Miss Meeker was a clerk in the office of the Secretary of the Interior, and was held in high esteem for her personal qualities. She and her mother were for some time prisoners in the hands of the Ute Indians after the massacre of 1879.

Father Willard of the Catholic Church, in a long communication in the Press and Dakotan, explains that the Mother Superior and Sisters at the convent and the Catholic people generally did not try to prevent the marriage of Sister Mary Paul to Dr. Rice. He says the sister by her act has excommunicated herself from the church. He leaves it to be inferred that a nun can readily obtain permission to marry if she expresses a desire.

MERCHANT'S GARGLING OIL.—We have made special personal inquiry in regard to the merits of this celebrated remedy, and find it a genuine article of rare value. It is by no means a new remedy. The establishment which produces it dates its manufacture as far back as 1833, since which time it has been steadily growing in public favor. The patients among the foremost business men of the city of Lockport. They are every way reliable.

From the Toledo (Ohio) Blade, July 6, 1871.

MERCHANT'S GARGLING OIL.—This Old standard article, under the admirable management of John Hodge, Esq., has reached an enormous sale. It is an honest compound article; it has merit, and now that the best business talent of the country is handling it, there is no reason why it should not double its present usefulness. No family can afford to be without it. For family use, as well as for animals, it is simply indispensable.
